of the district to inquire into the seven deaths that occurred there in the past three years, reportedly due to kidney ailments.
The move came after a report published in *The Hin-

Ananda Velu was wanted in several cases across Andhra Pradesh, including a redsanders smuggling case of 2005 in Tirupati.

The other accused, Appala Naidu, has a Preventive Detention Act case registered against him, charging him of smuggling ganja from the Odisha border to his counterparts in Tamil Nadu.

“We have initiated the process of serving red corner notice and lookout notice through the CID to nab Khader Bhai,” the Superintendent said. He presented rewards to the excelling police personnel of Sullurpeta and Doravari Satram stations for busting the crime”.

ONGOLE

Armed Reserve police constable M. Venkateswarlu (36) reportedly shot himself to death with his service weapon, at Ongole in Prakasam district, on Monday. He was a native of Cheemakurthi village in Prakasam district. He shot himself while on guard duty at a public sector bank at the Court Centre in town. Police registered a case.

Preliminary probe revealed that he had some pressing personal problems, police said.

Persons in distress or having suicidal tendencies may dial '100' for help.

Agriculture scientists and students of Naira Agriculture College, affiliated to Acharya N.G. Ranga University, took out a rally against plastic pollution on the occasion of World Environment Day. They vowed not to use single-use plastic which they said has turned into a bane for society. University Comptroller A.V. Ramana who was the chief guest at the programme said that excess usage of plastic and pesticides led to the soil contamination. He urged farmers to adopt natural farming techniques which would improve soil fertility. Associate Dean D. Srinivas, Officer of Students Affairs D. Chinnam Naidu also took part in the rally held on World Environment Day.
